"My joy is found not merely in teaching music, but allowing my students to LOVE music. I believe that is the foundation to a truly rewarding musical experience."

PERSONAL STATEMENT

I have a passion for music, an excitement in teaching, a love for people and a strong desire to see the young men and women in my community pursue the musical world. Through my studio I sincerely hope to use the JOY of music to impress upon the next generation the importance of good stewardship, high standards, goal setting and achieving, honor and ethics, in addition to the value each individual holds and the promise they can bring to the world.
